Belle's Cocktail House Media Sneak-Peek Preview Party

LEXINGTON, KY, November 5, 2013 – Be the first guests at Belle's Cocktail House, Lexington's most highly-anticipated new bar, at an exclusive Media Preview Party Thursday, November 7 from 4:00 to 8:00 p.m.

Public Grand Opening will be Saturday, November 9, 2013.

Located in the heart of downtown, Belle's Cocktail House at 156 Market Street (between Short and Church Streets) is led by a team comprised of Larry Redmon, well-known musician, bar-owner, and history buff, and the Bourbon Boys (Bob Eidson, and Seth and Justin Thompson) owners of The Bourbon Review magazine. Like the bar's colorful namesake Belle Breezing, Larry and the Bourbon Boys know a lot about southern hospitality!

Belle's will be serving handcrafted high-end cocktails in their updated Southern lounge with custom-made bars and window seats, Belle Breezing memorabilia, onyx back bar, pressed tin ceilings, crystal chandeliers, and the aptly named LaBelle Hunt Club upstairs. From their broad array of Kentucky bourbons and world-class spirits, their cocktails will feature fresh, seasonal ingredients. Craft beer geeks and wine lovers will also be well served at Belle's.
